DID YOU KNOW ?

Republican Headquarters is now open from 10 - 12 on Wednesday, Thursday, & Saturday. Stop by to pick up a free yard sign, buy jewelry, find Trump merchandise (caps, T-shirts, coasters, bumper stickers, etc.) or talk politics. Do your part to elect Republican Candidates – volunteer to help out by working at GOP Headquarters. You'll enjoy meeting like-minded Republicans who are working hard to stop the "so-called" Blue Wave. Contact Marie at (931) 801-3564 to volunteer. We also have Voter Registration Forms (until October 9) & Sample Ballots for the November 6 Election.

This week's Gallup Poll showed Republicans ahead in 7 years. Now get out to vote these popular Republicans into office. Montgomery County voters turned out a measly 40% in our latest Primary Election. This pathetically low turnout will not elect our Republican Candidates on November 6. Please mark your calendar now to step up to do your civic duty on Election Day. Tennessee can and should do better than being last in the nation in voter turnout. Aren't we the Volunteer State?

Randy Boyd, former Republican Candidate for Governor, has been appointed to be Interim President of the University of Tennessee. The final selection of Boyd just needs to be approved next week at the U.T.'s official Board Meeting. If approved, Boyd's term of office will last from 1 – 2 years.

Contact the Senate to CONFIRM BRETT KAVANAUGH for the Supreme Court. Please dial 1-202-224-3121, listen to the operator. Press 1 for the Senate. You will be asked for what state you desire. Then you will be asked for which Sen. you want - press 1 or 2. Leave a message urging that the Senate vote for Brett Kavanaugh for Supreme Court. Here are the Senators to call: Bob Corker (Tenn.), Jeff Flake (Arizona), Lisa Murkowski (Alaska), and Susan Collins (Maine.) If possible, also phone Joe Donnelly (Ind.), Bill Nelson (Fla.) NFRW is urging that we do this because the Dems. are flooding these Sen. with negative calls.
